MRS. JOHNSON HELD AS ACCESSORY TO M.

Young Johnson, Her Son, Main. That She Knew Nothing of the Crime.

Coleman, June 18.—Mrs. W. C. Johnson, wife of the man killed here early this month by his son, W. M. Johnson, was arrested yesterday before the preliminary hearing of her son on the charge, and the two were arraigned together. She is charged with being an accessory before the fact. They were bound over without bail to await the next term of court. The state contends that she conspired with her son to secure the insurance on Dr. Johnson's life. Young Johnson contended steadfastly on the stand yesterday that his mother never had any connection with the tragedy.

Mrs. Johnson is alleged to be a victim of the drug habit, and this, with the plea of insanity decided upon by the young man, connected the two.

"How did you come to give him such a name?" "I'm studyin' de animal and readin' de papers, boss. Dat mule gets more blame an' abuse dan anything else in de township, an' goes ahead havin' his own way jes' de same."—National Monthly.

Note Embodies Zapata's and Villa's Ideas

This note from the convention government was drafted after conference with the Zapata leaders. The state department previously had received a note of the same general character from General Villa, which, while denying the right of the United States to intervene in Mexico, said that the suggestion for a unification of the factions should be adopted. Proposals for peace are repeated in the Chazaro note, but as yet no definite word has been received from General Carranza as to his attitude.
